

Mr. Kunama Ayanwale Mtendaji

A member of the National Association of Black Storytellers, Mr. Kunama Ayanwale Mtendaji began his career in storytelling when he co-founded the duo called "Taifa" in 1981. Taifa performed all over the United States in schools, festivals, libraries and in schools in Ghana, West Africa.

Since 2001, Mr. Kunama has been performing solo, stories with music & dance. He specializes in folklore of the African Diaspora. His professional recordings include: "Stories From The Heart", "All About Pride", "Black Pioneers, Hunters & Warriors", "Anansi Story Favorites", and "Kwanzaa Ceremonial Music".

Mr. Kunama's storytelling and drumming session is perfect for children in grades 4 – 8 and their families. His session will be livestreamed on Zoom from 5:30 – 6:30 pm on December 19.

